Biography

ERMP publishes a Bio on everyone that is a member of our organization on our web site. We need yours. Check out our Staff Bios on the website at www.ermptv.com to see how yours might look.

A biography is a story about you! As with all stories, it starts from the beginning and travels along until the end. So with that in mind, here is the outline of an ERMP Biography!

- State the date and city in which you were born.
- State the High School name you graduated from and year.
- State the college you attended.
- List the degree(s), if earned.
- State your work history - list those jobs that provided great experience you have drawn upon for your activities with ERMP. List them chronologically. List only those that have helped to shape the reason you joined ERMP.
- Next, describe the reason you are involved with the television and film industry. What are your passions and hopes for the future?
- Lastly, list what month and year you joined ERMP.

Once done with your Bio, please email it to me at admin@ermptv.com.

Once we place your Bio on the website we will issue a Press Release announcing your position with ERMP.
